

Article review for the journal Problems of Agricultural Economics

Title:

Authors:

Reviewer:

Review date:

Scale: from 1 (very bad) to 5 (very good)

Overall value of the article

Does the article have scientific/practical/educational value?

Title

Is the title consistent with the problem presented in the article?

Introduction

Does it clearly define the aim of the article?

Case description

Does the article add any new findings to the current state of knowledge on the issue?

Materials and methods

Was the research area and methodology properly explained?

Were the sample selection criteria clearly explained and justified?

Were the basic characteristics of the sample properly described?

Is the sample size suitable and representative?

Was the data collected regularly and comprehensively?

Are the statistical methods relevant?

Outcomes

Are the outcomes important?

Discussion

Is the interpretation of results clearly presented and properly supported by evidence?

Conclusions

Are the conclusions significant and logically justified by presented evidence?

Graphics

Are all the figures and tables adequate and necessary?

References

Are the bibliography items selected for the paper sufficient and relevant to the discussed problems?

Summary

Does the summary outline the entire article?

Final grade*

* Paper accepted for print:

- without revision – marked T;
- paper conditionally accepted for print
(after considering reviewer's comments) – marked P;
- rejected paper (negative review) – marked N.

Final comment