

Marcin Gospodarowicz, PhD, DSc, is an associate professor of the Institute of Agricultural and Food Economics – National Research Institute (IAFE – NRI). He graduated from the European University Viadrina in Frankfurt (Oder) (Business Economics, 1999), obtained a PhD degree in Economics (University of Vienna, 2007) and a postdoctoral degree in Finance (Poznań University of Economics and Business, 2016). He completed his PhD studies in Finance at the Center for Central European Financial Markets of the University of Economics in Vienna and the University of Vienna. He is also an associate professor at the Faculty of Socio-Economics of Warsaw School of Economics (SGH). Mr. Gospodarowicz was a visiting scholar at the School of Economics and Finance, Victoria University of Wellington (New Zealand) in 2012 and the Financial University under the Government of the Russian Federation (Moscow) in 2016. Moreover, he is also a member of the Committee on Financial Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences.

His main scientific interests include institutional and infrastructural aspects of sustainable rural development, instruments promoting entrepreneurship in rural areas, the assessment of the effectiveness and efficiency of the EU financial instruments supporting enterprises in rural areas, quantitative analysis, financial institutions supporting regional development, and risk management in financial institutions. He participated in the implementation of national (National Centre of Science) and international (Horizon 2020) scientific grants in the field of finance and rural development and has been involved in projects on agricultural and rural development strategies under Multi-Annual Programs of the IAFE – NRI.